

Masterpieces in the music room.

Grade 5/6 Students were working hard this week composing music. Each student has selected an instrument and is now creating their own individual piece. All students are writing down the melody and rhythm on manuscript paper and will record and perform these pieces at the end of term.

Brooke Johnson
Performing Arts Coordinator

Busy young composers creating